TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

I am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State Senate Bill No. 160, passed by the recently adjourned Regular Session of the Forty-Ninth Legislature.

This bill is a local or special law in contravention of Section 56, Article III, Constitution of Texas.

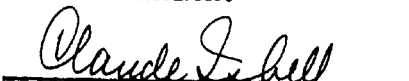

In the message which accompanied the return of House Bill No. 167 to the Forty-Eighth Legislature, and which appears in Senate Journal Page 286, and House Journal, Page 581, the objections to similar legislation and the authorities supporting them are more fully referred to. I know of no subsequent opinions which overrule or modify the decisions in the cases cited.

Senate Bill No. 160 reached my office less than ten days before the end of the Regular Session of the Forty-Ninth Legislature. In accordance with the Constitution, it is being filed with the Secretary of State together with this proclamation containing my objections to the bill.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 15th day of June, A. D., 1945.
